'Astrology is a Fact of Physics'

The Context

Since the Covid event began, I have been pointing to the 14th April 2020, as the day when the 'reality' of it all will become clear. While many of the facts of the disease have been revealed, Sweden has middle of the range deaths, Trump abandoned the WHO, 98% recovery rate, with the majority having very few symptoms, etc— however the real BIG clarification here in New Zealand, is that we will be the ONLY country on Earth to 'Kill the Curve'. We are going for complete elimination of the Covid 19 virus in NZ. We can do this, we are an island at the bottom of the planet, we have it contained, we have everyone tracked, we have closed borders, so we can 'kill it', but THEN WHAT... this quarantine of the whole country will last until there is a safe, scientifically tested vaccine, which has no ETA, and some say very little chance of being found, just like the illusive common cold vaccine; and this may well be forced upon the whole population, if the fanatics get their way.....Indeed we make the perfect test country....if only we were lab rats....As we can see with China, the 'kill it' approach only leaves us open to ongoing outbreaks, shutdowns and a closed country, for an extended period of time.

We — a country known for its international travelling, globalised businessmen and with 1/3 of our economy supported by tourism— are going to be THE sterile haven in a world of this rampant disease. At best we can expect everyone to have a 14 day quarantine whenever they arrive in the country— so good bye tourism and the weekend jaunt across the ditch to Ozzie.

The general consensus, as voiced on the RNZ afternoon panel, on the 14th April 2020, is that this is good and we can do it, and we must do it. No dissenting voice there. Even talking with 'normal' people, many have the 'NO deaths at any price', mantra. All very fine until we add in the suicides, bankruptcies and wrecked lives, people have spent 40 years building. The real kicker is the cost of all this will be paid for by borrowing money from America....$10 billion for the first month...and that's OK, its worth it.....hummmmm.

So the plan going forward is Sterility, Closed Borders, No End in Sight and Borrowing.....

From where I sit - This is a complete fantasy.

Controlled Herd Immunity is the common sense way forward.

As one with a long term commitment to 'natural living', in 'the demographic' of this disease, and with an immune system I have not destroyed. I am ok with nature doing its thing, especially with a 98% survival rate. This is a virus that is more contagious than the common cold, and spread throughout the world, who have no choice but to control it through the herd immunity process. So like the common cold it will be with humanity for evermore, in some stage or other of its cycle. I suspect most people can agree on this. Is it really worth upending our society in this way, for over a year or so?

As an expat Ozzie living in NZ since 1975, I have often found myself having a different view of things to the average kiwi. However this time, I am not only over the ditch, I feel like I am in a completely different dimension. I feel like I am walking around in La La Land. Common sense has disappeared and the collective 'kill nature' ethos, so evident in NZ agriculture, appears to have infected the majority here. Corporate Science is the God. The only problem being, 'she' is such a whore to the dollar, yet parliament and the judiciary are her slaves. What else have they got? This mutual conflict of interest between the Corporations and Government is THE fatal flaw of our society. Sadly it is game set and match, for the Corporations, given they have the means of production and thus the economy in their hands. Governments are at a disadvantage by design. Truth can not arise in such a circumstance, only what is good for the corporations, who we know are legally impelled to act psychopathically, for the benefit of their shareholders. No morality needed. So no not the sort of people you would want your daughter hanging out with, let alone your government.

This is not the first time I have wondered about the collective delusion of New Zealand. There have been several 'massive deceits' I have observed here. Muldoon's 'sink big' madness, (1) that under 'supreme control', saw the country bankrupted by debt to the IMF and World bank, when Muldoon was their president; followed by the Lange government, where a Left government turned out to be a far right government, which sold off all Muldoons 'national assets' to their mates, and the most recent Key scam, where NZ became a international money laundering and tax haven, to now be followed by Jacindaland, which we can only hope is not another 'supreme control', medical prison farm. The planets suggest this is a possibility.

The Astrological Science of the Matter

As an Astrologer I have often found 'understanding of this trait, in the NZ 'birthchart' for the NZ Constitution in 1853, upon which this government finds its legitimacy. The ability for the country to experience national delusions is very clearly marked. This also shows up positively as the tremendous number of innovative visionaries that NZ has produced over the years, along with some notable crooks. Individually this fertile imagination is usually a benefit, but as a collective. I observe, these Collective Astral traits usually play out in their more negative expressions.

In this chart I have only shown the relevant planetary relationships, to make it easier for most people. The red lines are tensions between the planets, which means the more 'unfortunate' traits of the planets play out when they are present.

We can run through lots of information, however I like to keep the astro babble to a minimum; so we can clump all the planets on the red lines, together, and find the simple outcomes of their conversations. The ones of particular interest are the relationships between Sun, Mars, Jupiter, Neptune and Pluto, along with a planetoid in the Keiper belt, called Persephone. The Sun, Mars, Jupiter Neptune part of this sentence, talks of things from idealism, religious fervor, through to total delusion. The bit that gives this all a real punch here in NZ though, is the tension between Mars and Pluto who bring a talent to 'fight to the death' to the table. Persephone the planetoid of 'humanity as one species', indicates the international leadership NZ likes to show; but also the completeness of the delusion that is possible. They really do believe it. John Key did not mean to turn NZ into a criminal haven.

To add to these basic indications , the Sun and Mars are in Capricorn, and in the 'home ' house. Which gives us a country that will fight to the death for their idealised fantasy of their home and family. We only need to reflect on the Kiwis international sporting success to see where this 'inner grit' and idealism for the country's success, is expressed. True kiwi visionaries are dotted throughout modern history. Sir Ed Hillary, Rutherford split the atom, Bill Pickering who headed the USA jet propulsion lab for many years, and through to Peter Jackson , but lets also remember Mr Asia. Naturally though, this 'deluded psychopath' tendency shows up in many different ways. Kiwis have this quiet retiring smoldering vibe, that is friendly, but are you really ever sure whether they are dangerous or not? A look at the family violence and incest figures per captia, which are up there with the best in the world, indicates the real story.

Anyway, I have long observed these planetary aspects, and also had to note that I have a similar planetary pattern, which allows me to feel at home here. Warm fuzzy delusion has its charms in the middle of exquisite natural surroundings. Also it is not as if the Kiwis can do anything about their 'birthchart'. It is hard enough for an individual to 'control their inner beasts', and impossible for a collective of near on 5 million people to do anything about it. They have to be conscious of the 'problem' first, and we will see how well they are collectively doing with that, by the reaction this article gets. We all know it is not a healthy occupation stirring up the Collective Shadow.....so in the pursuit of Astrological Science.....

Then and Now

There is the 'birth' tendency to fanatical delusion, and it just so happens that this structure is being 'sat upon' by the big planets in the sky, right now. Mars, Jupiter Saturn and Pluto are running over the top of the natal Sun and Mars, and thus energetically bouncing the whole birth structure into action. This suggests the fanatical fascist tendencies of this time, are powering up the fanatical defense of a dream. NZ as the one place on Earth free from one of the most contagious flu's ever.....This conjunction in the corporate sign of Capricorn has long been predicted, as the timing of the 'Corporate Fascist takeover of the World'. It seems with these guys all over NZ's delusion spot, NZ is a 'sitting duck' to be one of the epicentres of this effort. Whose science are we depending upon? It comes predominately from corporations. Vaccinated Sterile NZ is a corporate dream, and NZ is seduced into believing their whispers.

These transits can do with some serious consideration, given their domineering nature, and the fact that the last time we had something similar, was from October 1982 till late 1983, when we had Muldoons price and wage freeze, which ultimately lead to huge economic distortions, a 20% devaluation of our currency, and NZ being bankrupt. (1) Few people would deny the 'fascist' quality of the Muldoon era.

So these are classic indicators of a fascist coup of a country. We only need to reflect on this government presently pushing through the Urban Development Bill, which severely undermines existing property rights, while we are in a state of emergency, to imagine what else they are getting up to, with their 'executive' powers.

The chart ( on the previous page ) shows the transiting planets sitting on the base of the birth planetary complex, however the graph below makes this even clearer. It is a little complex however, all the red lines from the chart on the previous page, are '4th harmonic' relationships, which means within the 360 degree circle they are all on multiples of 45 degrees. 45, 90, 135, 180 degree angle relationships, and as in music the 4th is discordant and unsettling. So if we divided the whole chart by 45, and place the pieces on top of each other, we get a 45 degree graph, where everyone on that harmonic sits next to each other. We can easily see who is talking to who, and then what planets in the sky are effecting the whole bunch, and when.

This is all very good information to have, if we wish to see some of the physics standing behind the reality, we are seeing in front of us.

The blue box is the area of interest. The straight lines are the 'birth' planets, while the curving lines are the planets in the sky, over time. Time is along the top of the graph. This is for the year of 2020. Four planets are in play. Saturn is the green line and brings 'the hard reality' to manifestation. This is the limiting context of the pandemic, but also the paternalistic control we are seeing. This transit began on the 22nd Jan 2020 and wanders through various stages through until the 21 Dec 2020. This first crossing of the 'birth bunch' lasted till the 21 March. It was during the first period in January, we first heard of the 'killing the curve' idea, and on the 23rd March, when Saturn met with the bossy Jupiter and Pluto, we had Stage 3 lockdown announced, to be followed 2 days later with stage 4. Emergency powers in the hands of a very few.

Saturn comes back on the 3rd July crossing the Sun on 29th Aug and then again on the 3rd Nov, before hitting natal Jupiter and Pluto, with transiting Jupiter, on the 21 Dec 2020. This is when we can expect a full outcome to all this. We will see then what draconian developments we still have, and the 'social conditions' we will need to live under, for the next 20 years.

The real deluder in this bunch though is the Jupiter transit ( blue line ) over the birth Sun Persephone and Neptune., from 28 Mar till 20 April, - Stage 4 — kill the virus and no deaths are the mantra, while the hospitals are empty. The 20th is when we hear where we go next, and we can but hope some common sense, with regard to the economy, has now returned, especially since the Mars declination events are over. But the 'Medically Sterile NZ' corporate scientific dream so far remains the agenda.....

We can but watch for the 9th June till the 1 July 20, for more full on idealistic madness, and then the Nov 20 till 21 Dec for the outcome and consequences. Will the 'scientific maniacs' be able to keep the crowd deluded that long?

Sadly this may well just be the start of increasing madness. Pluto — the total autocratic—is only starting its passage over the country's deluded area, and carries on through until 2024. We are comparatively only in 1981 at present. So any fascist tendencies put in place now, will continue to develop through till 2024.

On the following page there are two graphs of Pluto transiting this same area. 1981—84 and 2019—24 The Muldoon era compared to now and our near future. Those who remember might like to watch the comparisons.

Based on Jupiter and Saturn transits we are now in 1983 — the control economy, however with Pluto we are still in 1981.

We can but sit and watch the play go by.....

PS. I am heartened by a poll run by the NZ Centre for Political Research, starting on the 12 April, showing 81% of the respondents, do not think eradication is possible. While many other sensible folk I have talked to recently, understand eradication is impossible. So it may well be just our political elite who have succumbed to this collective madness, that wants to lead the world into a corporate scientific fantasy. Lets hope New Zealand's natural democracy and common sense can win the day, and the Corporate Conflict of Interest will be seen for what it is.

(1) A study

These graphs are of Pluto having similar harmonic relationships to the same part of the NZ chart, but at different times. The difference in the length of the time periods, is due to Pluto moving quicker in 1981 than now, due to it coming into its perihelion, in 1989.

Observe the similarities of expression between the time periods, within the cultural and political life of New Zealand. Its place in the world, its social idealism, its Control level.....
