

Jupiter conjunct Saturn in Aquarius

Glen Atkinson PhD

A time of world views that can help humanity evolve

Conjunct my Mars in Aquarius in my relocated 6th house

= radical functional ideas of how things can be done better.

Free Health Control for All

An Aquarian Thought Process

Here is the picture of the Galaxy. The small one is from the Thrive organisation. It shows the energetic spherical nature of the Galaxy, which mirrors the energetic nature of everything in creation. From the Galaxy to the Atoms, everything in creation has a spherical electro magnetic energy field around it.

Energetic Spheres floating in an Energetic Ocean. Completely interactive with each other.

A Circle is a 1/360th slice of a Sphere

So, Every Circle resonates in harmony with Everything in Creation

Every circle organises the Universal Harmonic organisation within it.

What Is

When it Moves

What is the Universal Harmonic Organisation—you ask?

By following the axiom
As Above, So Below
We come to this order

For the background thoughts see

Introduction

Physical = Earth = Earth forces
Ethereic = Water = Atmosphere forces
Astral = Air = Planetary Forces
Spirit = Fire = Star Forces

See Dr R Steiner medical indications for how this relates to particular illnesses.

Given everything in Creation organises according to the Universal order, Chemistry must do likewise.

Here is that order.

For background on this see <http://garudabd.org/biodynamic-chemistry/>

This picture shows the energetic activity of every chemical element, and for all the spaces where chemical element do not manifest.

See Homeopathy use of the chemical elements.

Based upon the 100 years of experience with Bach Flower Remedies, and the work of Dr Emoto, we know that light moving through a Glass bottle into water will 'program' this water.

When a glass bottle of water is placed on any elemental spot within a circle, orientated off magnetic north, for more than 10 minutes, this water will accumulate the energy of that element, SAFELY.

This water can then be used, as drops for Humans and Animals or sprayed over Plants and Soil.

Free health control for ANY ONE, ANY WHERE, ANY TIME.

If Circles resonate with the Universal Order
 then everything in manifestation must be able to be found within the circle.
